

Through cycles of darkness
the diamond sleeps in its coal-black prison.

- fragment from Treasures,
Emma Lazarus

Shall there be yearning for the sound of voices,
The sight of faces, and the
touch of hands,
The will that works, the spirit that rejoices,
The heart that feels, the mind that understands?

Shall dreams and memories crowding from
the distance,
Shall ghosts of old
ambition or of mirth, Create for us a shadow of existence,
A dim reflection of the life of earth?

- fragment from The House
of Sleep, Robert Fuller Murray

And I ask my soul what it all may mean;
If this is the love that should have been.

And oft and again I wonder, Can What God intends be changed by man?

- fragment from Unfulfilled,
Madison Julius Cawein

The new years come,
the old years go,
We know we dream,
we dream we know.

We hug the world
until it stings,
We curse it then and sigh for wings.

- fragment from The Year, Ella Wheeler

Why make so much of fragmentary blue

When heaven presents in sheets the solid hue?

- fragment from Fragmentary Blue,
Robert Lee Frost

Now at last I have come to see what life is,
Nothing is ever ended,
everything only begun,
And the brave victories that seem so splendid Are never really won.

- fragment from At Midnight, Sara Teasdale

Cycles | Fragments is a reflection on life in quarantine. Each year seems to mirror the previous with little progression forward. Every remote attendance yields a fraction of the authentic experience. Existentialism resides in the shadows of everyday living. Yet even if we have control over seemingly little, we can always guide our perspective. In that way, this is my meditation.

* Letters in brackets are to be interpreted according to the corresponding letters in the International Phonetic Alphabet. The letters used in this work are pronounced as follows:

- [a] = "a" in "father"
- [f] = "f" in "faces"
- [m] = "m" in "may"
- [v] = "v" in "love"
- [x] = "ch" in "Bach"
- [ʃ] = "sh" in "shall"

In the case that a pair of brackets houses a letter and a different letter in parentheses, the sounds that result from these two letters are to be performed simultaneously.

In the instance of arrows that connect two bracketed letters together, you are to initiate the sound from the first letter, then over the duration of the given note evenly morph the first sound into the second sound.

Detailed description: This is a page of a musical score for a voice duet and piano. The score is in the key of D major (indicated by two sharps) and 4/4 time. It begins at measure 110. The vocal parts are arranged in four staves: Soprano (S), Alto (A), Tenor (T), and Bass (B). The piano accompaniment is in a grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The vocal lines feature dynamic markings such as p (piano), f (forte), pp (pianissimo), and mf (mezzo-forte). The lyrics are: 'so much of frag-men-ta-ry...' and 'And I ask my soul what it all may'. The piano part includes articulation marks like accents and slurs, and a 'Ped. ad lib' instruction. A fermata is placed over the final notes of the vocal lines.
